A visit to the Limassol Carnival

'So, let's talk about it!'
By Peri Sualp

By Peri Sualp.....

Last Sunday 10th March 2019 I went to The Limassol Carnival with a group of friends. Hundreds of Turkish Cypriots went there either by bus or their own cars.

The Limassol Carnival is a European carnival event held in Limassol every year at the beginning of March - before Easter. It is considered to be one of the notable carnival events worldwide.

Definitely it was a very colorful event filled with joy and also I must say that it was an exclusive and an extraordinary carnival. You get to wear costumes and have fun with strangers! You get to watch parades and great shows. They sell fun stuff for all ages! .. As practiced now in Limassol, it is a legacy from the Venetians who ruled over Cyprus during the 15th–16th centuries. The carnival of Venice, however we celebrate it here too. Not only Greek Cypriots and certainly Turkish Cypriots but people from all around the world came to take part in this amazing carnival. And every year the number of people attending increases and every year the more interesting it gets as I've heard.

This was the first year I attended this outstanding and entertaining event. It was the best carnival/festival I have seen so far. We went by bus. We sang in the bus with my friends and strangers. We played games and solved questions. Even though I was shy, I sang individually as well but it was so much fun in the end!

We went to the zoo before the carnival and it was the first time I have ever been to a zoo in Cyprus. It was better than I thought it would be. We ate and drank and had great time all together. It was a very long and tiring day but it sure was worth it.

I would highly recommend this carnival to everyone which is right around the corner from us! You don't have to go all the way to Rio!

Let's go together next year!

Özersay met with Çavuşoğlu

Deputy Prime Minister and Minister of Foreign Affairs Kudret Özersay met with Turkish Foreign Minister Mevlüt Çavuşoğlu in Antalya. During the meeting, Özersay and Çavuşoğlu discussed the Greek Cypriot side's military and defensive steps which can affect regional peace negatively, and the developments on the issue of natural gas. Furthermore, they exchanged views before the meeting of Çavuşoğlu with the UN Secretary General's Temporary Envoy Jane Holl Lute.

Çavuşoğlu met with Lute

Turkish Foreign Minister Mevlüt Çavuşoğlu met with the UN Secretary General's Temporary Envoy to Cyprus Jane Holl Lute in Antalya. During the meeting, Çavuşoğlu said: "We stressed to Lute that every option for a permanent solution in Cyprus is on the table, and the political equality of the Turkish Cypriots is an indispensable condition in every case."

Greek Cypriot side understanding is time passes in their favour

Prime Minister Tufan Erhürman stated that the Greek Cypriot Administration tries to extend the Cyprus negotiation process with the belief that the time passes in their favour.

Erhürman answered the questions of AA correspondent in London where he is visiting in order to make a series of contacts.

Stating that always there is an understanding on the Greek Cypriot side that time passes in their favour, Erhürman said that the Greek Cypriot leader Nikos Anastasiades also expresses this in a very concrete way. That's why we as the Turkish Cypriot side and the Republic of Turkey are decisive not to give an opportunity for such a thing.

Indicating that both the Turkish Cypriot side and Turkey will not accept starting the Cyprus negotiations over from scratch, Erhürman said: "We do not think that this will support the will for a solution. This is an approach that will extend the process and imprison us in an uncertain process."

Pointing out that the Turkish Cypriots put forward their will for a solution by voting 'yes' at the Annan Plan referendum in 2004, Erhürman said yet after 2004, unfortunately, in spite of the fact that Turkish Cypriots said 'yes', and the Greek Cypriots said 'no', the process did not work in favour of the Turkish Cypriots in the medium term.

Underlining that in spite of this, the Turkish Cypriots and the Republic of Turkey continue to search for a solution to the Cyprus problem as soon as possible, Erhürman added:

"This process has moved us to Crans Montana. The Turkish Cypriot side and the Turkish Republic put forth a serious will to reach a fair and permanent solution but the Greek Cypriot side, mainly Anastasiades, showed that they were not ready for a solution in Crans Montana".

Pointing out that after the Crans Montana process, the Greek Cypriot Leader started to put forth different concepts, Erhürman said that for the first time the Greek Cypriot side gave some messages to the authorities that a two state solution and a confederation could also be discussed. He initiated the discussion of loose federation or decentralized federation open to the public opinion. Erhürman also added that after Crans Montana, the Turkish Cypriot side has given the message that if the negotiations resume, the process should be result oriented and based on a calendar and said that this was also stated in the report of the UN Secretary General Antonio Guterres and has also become the official position of the UN.

Malya Village Martyrs

Ercan Air Traffic Control provides service to International Standards

Air traffic services within the Ercan Advisory Airspace has been safely run by the Ercan Air Traffic Management Center since 21 March 1977.

Since 3 February 1975, Ercan Airport's Air Traffic Control Tower has been actively used by professional staff who provide top quality service to inbound, outbound and transit aircraft. Ercan acts as a bridge between the west and the Middle East and keeps growing strongly as its place in the sector continues to strengthen. Ercan Advisory Airspace covers an area of 55,000 km² and service is given by air traffic controllers under International Civil Aviation Organisation (ICAO) safety rules. Our trained air traffic controllers run and manage the advanced air traffic systems at Ercan Airport Traffic Control Tower.

In 1992, after the setup of the first radar at Ercan Airport, the scope of service provided extended to a much larger area and enabled global integration with the aviation industry. Despite the presence of the unjust isolation of the TRNC, safe management of air traffic by the traffic control tower at Ercan Airport continues to grow. The tower manages daily traffic between 70 to 100 aircraft. In Ercan Advisory Airspace, the daily traffic is between 650-800 planes. Transit air traffic over Ercan Airspace in January and February 2018 was 32,325. The figure increased to 36,094 for the first two months of 2019, an 11 per cent growth. The accusations that Ercan Advisory Airspace is a threat to safety in aviation is completely false. On the contrary, air traffic controllers at the Ercan Airport traffic control tower sometimes spot mistakes made by the Nicosia Control and sends warnings to ensure safe passage of traffic, thus acting as an insurance.

The air traffic controllers continue to develop their careers through on the job training, which include workshops and simulation practices, sometimes taking place in Turkey's busiest airports.

With state of the art equipment and hardware, the main objective is to provide international aviation safety rules within the Ercan

Advisory Airspace for safe, rapid and orderly flow of air traffic. With trained personnel, Ercan Air Traffic Management Center, will surely continue to provide service and grow in the aviation sector.

TRNC Ministry to cooperate with Municipalities

Minister of Public Works and Transportation Tolga Atakan paid a visit to the Cyprus Turkish Union of Municipalities.

During his visit, Minister Atakan met with Chairman of the Cyprus Turkish Union of Municipalities and Güzelyurt Mayor, Mahmut Özçınar, who stated that a consensus was reached for the ministry and local administrations to cooperate on certain issues.

Özçınar said it was vital to develop institutional cooperation, which will result in municipalities engaging in cleaning intercity roads, enabling traffic safety and the maintenance of roadside traffic signs.

Pen-friendship and present day teenagers

By Ahmet Abdulaziz

The other day I was listening to "Sealed with a Kiss" sung by Jason Donovan. This is one of my favourite songs and I listen to it frequently.

Though the most famous line of this song is "sealed with a kiss", which has been repeated again and again, but the other day I was struck with yet another line of the song.

" I'll send you all my dreams every day in a letter Sealed with a Kiss"

For me and to most of listeners from my generation it is a common way of expression of one's feelings.

But does the new generation understand what the words " every day in a letter", mean? To put it more straight, let me ask another question. "Does the new young generation (teenagers) know how a letter is written and sent"?

I am afraid the majority of youngsters have never posted a letter. They are the generation of the computer age. They have grown up sending messages on either their personal computers and now on mobile phones.

I am a member of a number of groups of teenagers on Facebook. I put up the same question in a number of groups. Interestingly, as expected, most of the participants had not written a letter. Obviously they had not sent any letters by post too. Most of them had never visited a post office.

This is why I say that they (present day teenagers) cannot understand the feelings expressed in the song. For them it is difficult to understand why does the writer of the song promise to send a letter daily. They cannot understand the extent of desperation hidden in these words.

Writing and posting a letter in fact is a process that ends for the sender, when posted. But at the same time sending the letters is the start of the process of waiting. In the pre-computers days, the period between the posting of the letter and also receiving the reply was very important. Unlike the present days, when one gets the reply instantly, the sender of the letter had to keep in mind the period that the letter would take to reach the receiver, the expected time that the receiver would take to write down the reply, and the period it would take again to reach to the sender.

It used to be a long period of waiting, which the sender would have to pass through, with varying feelings. The sender usually would remain calm for a few days after posting the letter, but as the days further passed by, the sender would become more emotionally disturbed.

I remember , during late 1960s and 1970s I used to have a number of pen-friends in different countries. I had been writing to them, and would wait for the reply. I do know how terrible this process of waiting used to be for me. I always wondered why my pen-friends were not replying to me in a reasonable time. I remember I had been too quick to pen down and post my replies, but my pen-friends had not been so.

But this was the way I used to think in those days. But now I can understand better. In those days I had perhaps not been counting correctly the time that a letter usually took to reach to the destination. I had always thought that my friends should have been writing the reply immediately after receiving my letter but this would not have been so in every case. But I was not too patient in those days.

I remember I used to have two pen-friends in Philippines, one in Japan, one in UK, and a number of friends in Turkey.

As I recall now, most of our letters used to carry the same information, week after week, month after month. But we never got bothered by reading and writing the same again and again.

The repetition of the same topics never made anyone upset.

continued Pen-friendship and present day teenagers

The exchange of photos was not so common as it is now, mostly because there was no online transfer of photos in those days. Every photo used to pass through a long process, to be in its final shape. So it was not very common to send many photos to each other. Maybe one photo in a couple of months, used to be the practice then.

There used to be pen-friend magazines, carrying details of people of all ages from various countries, interested in pen-friendship. The new generation have various online sites where they can find new friends, but they cannot understand how different it used to be in those days, when we had had to visit the bookstores to find new pen-friend magazines. The process of selecting friends on the basis of their ages, gender and hobbies, was never an easy process. Once some new friends have been selected from the magazines, the process of writing letters would start.

Writing the first introductory letter used to be the same, to all the new possible friends. Once the letters had been sent, the process of a long wait would start. I used to wait too eagerly for the reply, though knowing that the other party was never obliged to respond. Even knowing this very clearly, still almost daily I used to wait for the postman with great anxiety. I can still see myself getting excessively desperate and depressed, seeing the postman passing by our house, without any letter for me.

In fact most of the present day teenagers, have not seen a postman. They do not know the way the letters had been distributed by hand from house to house.

I accept the present day youngsters also pass through the same phase of waiting, to receive reply to their messages, but I am sure it is very very different from what my generation used to go through some 50 years ago.

Here is the song
"SEALED WITH A KISS".

Though we've got to say goodbye for the summer
Darling, I promise you this
I'll send you all my love every day in a letter
Sealed with a kiss

Yes it's gonna be a cold, lonely summer
But I'll fill the emptiness
I'll send you all my dreams every day in a letter
Sealed with a kiss

I'll see you in the sunlight
I'll hear your voice everywhere
I'll run to tenderly hold you
But darling you won't be there
I don't want to say goodbye for the summer
Knowing the love we'll miss
Oh, let us make a pledge to meet in September
And seal it with a kiss

Yes, it's gonna be a cold, lonely summer
But I'll fill the emptiness
I'll send you all my dreams every day in a letter
Sealed with a kiss

Street in Girne named after Cypriot poet FILIZ NALDÖVEN

By Heidi Trautmann
www.heiditrautmann.com

On the morning of March 08 I was on the lookout for people gathering at the entrance of the road that was going to be named after Filiz Naldöven, the poet. She left this level of existence in 2016 but will continue to live now through her poetry books and the street near Zeytinlik village and overshadowed by St. Hilarion. Perhaps one or another pedestrian will wonder who this poet was and will buy a book of hers.

The Mayor of Girne, Nidai Güngördü mentioned that she was a constantly producing artist, which as a fact is right; she lived poetry; her poetry sense was always wide open and the most unspectacular object gave her a reason to create poetic thoughts.

The Mayor and Nehir Demirel, Filiz Naldöven's daughter, who herself is a successful theatre woman, a theatre director, were pulling the strings to uncover the new road plate with the name on it: 'Şair Filiz Naldöven'.

With this inauguration the International Women's Day was being celebrated and the Mayor attached a bunch of red carnations to the pole.

We, the guests attending, then heard some poems read by Fatoş Avcısoy Ruso and Ceyhan Özyıldız, both literary persons, before we all parted and went into different directions to continue with our own life.

My interview with Filiz Naldöven is included in my book 'Art and Creativity in North Cyprus' Volume II. Please click on the link shown below to read her story.

PS: An afterthought....

Where were the many Turkish Cypriot poets, I wondered, to honour the name giving?

The Quest - Part 5 - The Great Pyramid of Giza

By Nick Vye
Sanctuary

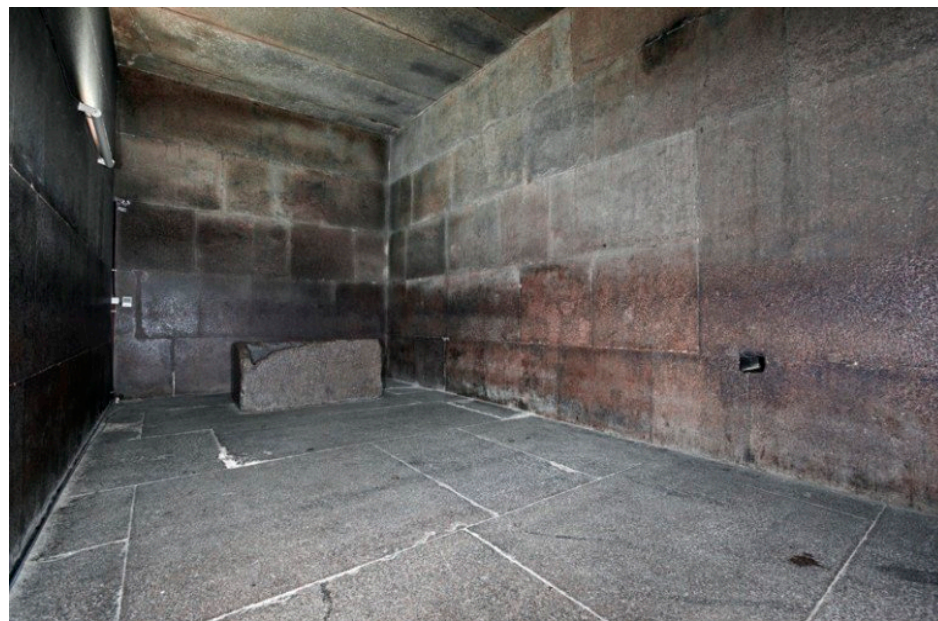

Cairo is a large bustling city, it's hard to believe the Great Pyramid is literally on the outskirts of the city approx 8 miles away. Standing there like a great edifice, placed there on the sands by some strange outside force. So unbelievable, at 450 ft tall and that's without the capstone that is missing. Facing the four points of the compass, exactly when first built and in the centre of the earth. Over 2,600,000 blocks of stone, weighing half a ton - to one and a half tons each and some inside of the King's Chamber 70 tons each. Today with all our modern day technology we cannot build with the same inside / outside perfection.

We arrived by traditional camel late afternoon. The sun was sinking lower in the sky, thus taking the oppressive heat of the day away. Zac intended to bribe one of the guards, so we could be locked in the Pyramid for the night. As he wanted us to experience the illumination of light that appears to the true seeker and shows the way to travel to a different dimension, or star system. Maybe Orion or The Plaeides which are both connected with the Pyramid.

It's so impressive inside, one can only wonder, who managed to build it. The Grand Gallery alone defies belief, it's so magnificent. The ascending passageway leading to the King's Chamber, where a large empty sarcophagus looking shaped piece of granite lies, bigger than the entrance to the chamber. Question - how did it get in there? There's a constant temperature in the Pyramid brought about by incorporated air shafts built into the design.

lighting had been turned off. They came out of their hidden location and by torch light made their way again up the ascending passage way to the King's Chamber. After some time their eyes became accustomed to the dark and they could see the outline of the Grand Gallery. Slowly with the aid of the torch light, they found themselves inside the King's Chamber. The granite sarcophagus was nearly 7 ft long and hollowed out inside.

As the time came for the visitors to leave, we were told to stay in a certain location inside. Zac's bribe had worked, and they would be alone in there until the site was opened at 8-00am the next morning. Peter had his trusty torch with him and a flask of local tea. It became very still and quiet in there, especially now the electric

The Quest

Zac would lie inside and Peter would sit along the back edge. As sound was an important part of the ceremonial ritual Zac chanted the HU mantra.

It was now well past midnight and Peter was beginning to feel a little nervous. Zac sensed it and told him to breathe slow and deep and focus his attention on the sound of the HU, which had started to produce a vibrating frequency around them. Have no fear he thought to himself silently.

All of a sudden they were aware of a dim light, coming from the apex of the roof chamber. It gradually became brighter and formed the shape of a doorway. Coming through the light appearing in a golden ray was the most handsome man Peter had ever seen. He had long blonde hair, brilliant blue eyes that shone and the aura of wisdom and love surrounded him.

They both became aware of a heightened state of consciousness, and realised they were being drawn out of their bodies and were now in their soul bodies, following the beckoning figure, through the illuminated doorway and into another realm of beingness.

What followed in their experience was exclusive to them.

101st day (09/03/2019)

After having breakfast with the family of Mr. Recep he started off towards KUŞADAŞI. It was a short distance of 10 kilometers. He took a quick tour of the city centre. The local people were friendly and some of them were following him through social media. Two cycling lovers accompanied him. They fixed up their tents at a suitable place. The whole day was spent in visiting various parts of the city.

After a short tour of the area, he started off towards DIDİM, where the ancient city of Millet is located. On his way he met a Chinese tourist family. He also met a group of cycling lovers who accompanied him for the next 20 kilometers until arriving in DIDİM. After touring the area, he ultimately fixed his tent at the side of the BAFA lake.

103rd day (11/03/2019)

He started off at about 9.30am towards MILAS. Next stop was KARACEBİL, which is a small place, where he stopped to have tea. The road was having too many ups and downs, which made him very tired. He reached Milas in the afternoon, after a tiring expedition. The area has many historical remains. He spent most of the remaining time of the day visiting them.

104th day (12/03/2019)

He reached TORBA from Milas. The total distance covered was approximately 80 kilometers. Two friends on bicycles who had been accompanying him for the last two days, departed and continued their travel towards Antalya. He decided to stay at TORBA. He had planned to take a couple of days off to rest there.

KAR - Story of the Week - "Olive"

Last year Diane and a group of lady friends were holidaying in TRNC. They were staying in Lapta. One day they went shopping in a local Lemar. Outside the shop was a lovely street dog - a retriever type with such soulful eyes. The ladies stroked her and gave her some water and food. Staff told the ladies that the dog was there every day and did not have an owner. When they went shopping again she was still there and more fusses were made and food/water given. They began to call her Olive.

On their next shopping visit Olive was not outside. The following day - still no Olive. The ladies missed their doggy fuss and were a bit worried about what had happened to her. Shopping in Lemar they were in the pet food aisle choosing food for the strays. Diane felt a tug at her shorts and a nudge on her leg. She looked down and there sitting beside her nudging her leg and trying to get her attention was Olive.

She had obviously come looking for her "lady" friends.

Diane was "hooked" and decided that she and Olive were meant to be and she would adopt Olive.

She contacted us and the process, and costs involved, were explained and Diane began the process.

Olive was tested for Distemper, had her "doggy" vaccinations and private boarding was organised. She was then spayed. Once she had recovered from her op she started on her UK preparations.

Throughout the process Diane was in contact and was receiving updates about Olive.

FINALLY it was time for Olive to travel to the UK to be reunited with Diane.

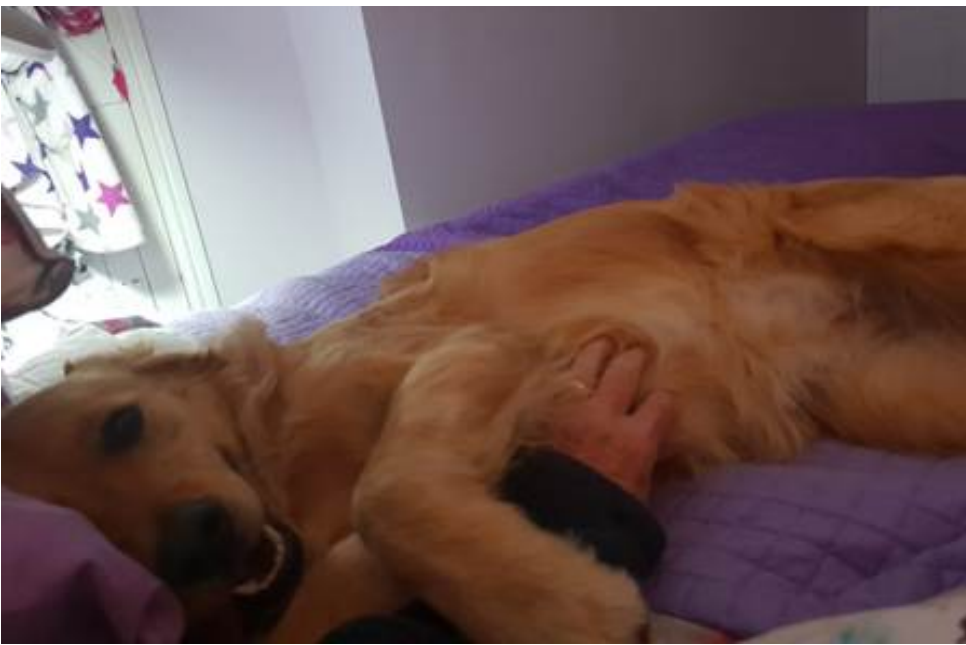

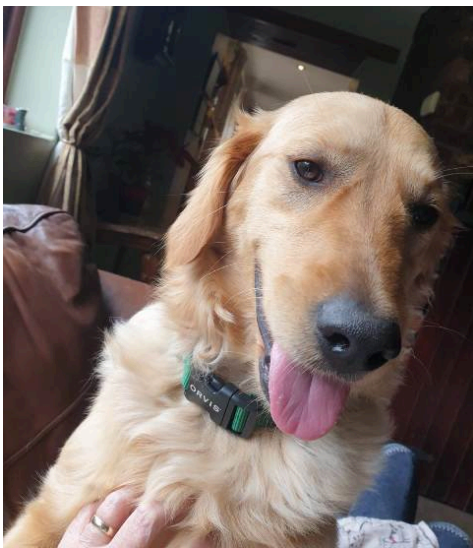

Once she arrived we received the following message from Diane "She's adorable. She has fitted in with the family well - she likes our duck pond!!

She also likes watching TV. She is keeping us so amused "

Olive and Diane .. a match made in Lemar.

Happy days wishes for Olive.

Last cuddles at the KAR Karakum Office before starting her journey to the UK.

Rotary Club of Kyrenia Cosmopolitan Tree Planting Project

We are delighted to have received news from the Rotary Club of Kyrenia Cosmopolitan about their Tree Planting project which we are pleased to share under:

By Olgun Topalcık
Rotary Club of Kyrenia
Cosmopolitan

Since the beginning of life, trees have provided us with two of life's essentials, food and oxygen. As we evolved, they provided additional necessities such as shelter, medicine, and tools. Today, their value continues to increase and more benefits of trees are being discovered as their role expands to satisfy the needs created by our modern lifestyles.

Also trees contribute to their environment by providing oxygen, improving air quality, climate, conserving water, preserving soil, and supporting wildlife. During the process of photosynthesis, trees take in carbon dioxide and produce the oxygen that we breathe.

From those reasons, as a club, we decided to organise this project in 2018 as part of our strategic planning for the next five years. On Sunday 10th of March 2019, we planted 8 Pepper, 8 Fir, 8 Jacaranda and 8 Australian Mulberry trees in the National Park, Alsancak Girne.

We had Rotarians from our sister club RC Varyant from İzmir, Turkey and also Rotarian friend Işın Yaltıraklı joined our ceremony.

As a club, we would like to thank our main sponsor Merit International Group, General Manager of Merit Groups Aybars Kutluba, Alsancak Municipality Mayor Fırat Ataser, Vice Chair Zehra Şekeroğlu, Past President Gültaç Özsan, Pelin Kutluba and Rotarian friends Ayten and Ben Benoit for all contributions and help to organise this ceremony.

KAV 16th Orchid Walk once more a big success

By Rezan Fahrioglu Yamaci

Research Fund

The Orchid Walk organized by the Cancer Research Foundation (KAV) was held on a sunny day on 10th March, Sunday, between Kozanköy and Karşıyaka villages. With the attendance of almost 850 walkers the event was again a big success. Many people of all ages, families with babies in strollers, students from universities and colleges and cancer survivors joined the walk with the slogan 'Walking to beat cancer' and contributed a common aim: support cancer research.

Buses from main cities of Nicosia, Kyrenia, Famagusta, Güzelyurt and Lefke took the walkers to the starting point at Kozanköy, early in the morning. After a short talk by Prof. Mustafa Camgöz and the Telsim Director Fevzi Tanpınar, the walk started joyfully. After giving a break at the midpoint called 'Cennet Kapısı' (Heaven's Gate) by the locals, the walkers enjoyed the snacks provided. This year KAV carefully chose the bags provided to the walkers, to be environment friendly and not plastic. An interim report of KAV's achievements and projects in 2018 as well as useful information on cancer was also provided. The report was prepared both in Turkish and English languages so that everyone living in Cyprus could benefit from the information provided in the report.

The shows at the final were cancelled due to the sudden death of ex-Prime Minister Mr. İrsen Küçük. However, the winners of the raffle were announced where gifts such as a tablet, a microwave and tickets to a famous theatre show were given out. The lead song of the event 'You'll never walk alone' was played after a minute of silence for the ones who lost the fight to cancer. Unlike previous years, the balloons were not released, with the aim of the protection of environment.

The main sponsor of the event, Telsim, has been supporting KAV's biggest event, the Orchid

Walk, with big contribution. However, continuous support of Lemar, Özerlat Coffee, Bigibox and PlayFM should also be mentioned. Other than these, EMU, NEU, CIU, Municipalities of Famagusta, Güzelyurt, Gönyeli, Lapta and Lefke and Önder Shopping Centre have also supported the event. Of course the hard work and heartfelt contribution of the KAV volunteers led by Mrs Sevinç Miralay is worth mentioning. We are grateful to all our sponsors, volunteers and walkers for their continuous support.

For the first time in the history of KAV, and maybe other charities in North Cyprus, the tickets of the event went on sale online as well! Thanks to Innovia for making it real for us! Online donation through Paynet secure system is also available by using the link shown at the bottom of the page :

The money raised at the walk will be used to support the research going on in Cyprus to determine the causes of cancer in Cyprus. This said, we are announcing that KAV is giving out another scholarship to an outstanding scientist who will work on environmental effects on cancer. Applications should be sent to Prof Mustafa Camgöz by 1st April (m.djamgoz@imperial.ac.uk).

Jessic's Friends of Karşıyaka School Children continue support

It's good to see that since we last visited the Karşıyaka primary school that the great supporters group have continued to work hard to improve the lives and prospects of the children that go to the school and we have just received this latest news:

From Amanda Fiora.

Teachers and staff from Karşıyaka primary school took the opportunity of a sunny day on Monday 11th March to visit Jessic's Bar and Restaurant where so much successful fundraising has taken place to add to facilities for Karşıyaka schoolchildren.

Led by Head teacher Yildiz Ozalp, they joined the Trustees of the 'Jessic's Friends of Karşıyaka School Children' Society for a convivial lunch to discuss what has been achieved so far, and what will be done next.

They were welcomed on behalf of the Trustees by Jim Paterson, and Mus Aziz presented them with the 12 Lego education sets to help the school children's technical problem solving and creative skills.

Jessic's proprietors Mus and Deniz, supported by the other

Trustees, are keen to add to the music facilities available at the school, so the next major step looks to be improving the selection of instruments and lessons to encourage all youngsters to express their musical talents. The possibilities of creating after-school clubs for music and English language are also being looked at, and were met with an enthusiastic response from those gathered.

The next major fundraising Auction 'Pub-Day' will be held at Jessic's Bar and Restaurant on April 21st (Easter Sunday) with a Kebab BBQ being served from 1pm, and a fantastic auction with Auctioneer Karl Rugg starting from 3.00pm (ish). A raffle draw will take place after the Auction ends and will be followed by live music with the ever-popular Peter Dawson.

Jessic's are welcoming donations of all sorts suitable for the Auction, Raffle, and for the popular "Make an Offer" bargain table, and with the time of year just right for a 'Spring-Clean' we're hoping that lots of hidden treasures will be uncovered.

100% of funds raised go directly to projects directly benefiting Karşıyaka schoolchildren and have so far assisted the refurbishment and equipping of a media-room and library, and the provision of 'Lego' educational sets to help with STEM learning skills.

Jessic's are open every day from 11 a.m. to receive any items, or phone Deniz on 0533 858 7322.

Bravo Young Esentepe Team

Result : Esentepe U21 Team 1 BAF Ülkü Yurdu U21 team 0

Sunday March 10 : K-Pet U21 Super League ; Esentepe Erdal Barut Stadium.

Bravo Esentepe Under 21 team, Bravo Coach Gokan Kim a great win for the youngsters thanks to an 80th minute goal from EFE KİLİÇ who now are in seventh place in what is an extremely difficult league.

Esentepe under 21 team pulled off an unexpected win against opposition that are in a higher place than them in the League and have more resources to choose from.

The youngsters have had a good season, they have been stripped of their best players who have been called up into the senior squad. They have lost players transferred to bigger richer clubs and of course they have suffered from the normal problems of injuries and suspension.

This match provided little goal thrills as two strong defences dominated the match. Baf Ülkü Yurdu (BUY) were technically the better team, but found an Esentepe team in a dogged and determined mood.

Goal chances were at a premium and the only goal was well taken by EFE KİLİÇ in the 80th minute who fastened on to a clearance, made room for himself, and beat the BUY goalkeeper with a shot from just outside the area.

As a team Esentepe battled hard together, with the brothers Mehmet Gürkan and Izzet Furkan Demir having strong games. With Esentepe missing their Captain Ali Soytürk, his deputy HALİT ÇULCU had an outstanding game at the heart of the Esentepe defence. He was brave, strong, uncompromising and won countless headers for his team,

In the Red Group the game between the second and third place teams ended in a disappointing 0-0 draw (see match report below). Leaders Görneç took advantage winning 2-0 at Dipkarpaz thanks to a brace of goals from ARDA ÖZKAN taking his tally of the season to 16.

Next Sunday Görneç play Vadili which could well decide the Championship.

In the White Group Karaoğlanoğlu won 1-0 against Zürlüköy keeping them 4 points ahead of their nearest rivals Lapta.

TCB SK GREAT EXPECTATIONS ! - A LET DOWN

Result : Vadili TCB SK 0 Dörtyol SK 0

Saturday March 9 : BTM League Red Group : Vadili 14 Ağustos Stadi

On a brilliant warm Saturday afternoon, on paper a match between second placed Dörtyol and third place Vadili at the top of the BTM Red Group looked to be an exciting prospect. However in reality with the match at stake the match turned out to be a disappointment

The 14 Ağustos Stadi was packed to the rafters, hard to estimate the attendance maybe 400-500 which is more than some Super League and League 1 clubs get. Dörtyol bussed in a couple of coaches and they soon made their presence felt, Vadili fans provided the noise with drums and the dreaded Vuvuzela. The atmosphere was electric it was a shame there was no spark on the playing field.

The pitch has not improved since the last time I was here, it looked like a herd of cattle has been grazing on it! it was threadbare in places, bumpy with an uneven bounce, maybe this is what caused the match to be such a disappointment.

With this match ending in a draw it was League leaders Görneç who benefitted they won 2-0 at Dıpkarpaz and are now 2 points ahead of Dörtyol with three matches to play.

There were some robust challenges at the beginning of the match, the game was simmering on the field it could have boiled over at any time, which may have spilled onto the terraces. The fact it did not was down to referee Fatih Bardakçioğlu who I thought had an excellent game, cool and calm with his decisions.

The first half was dominated by Dörtyol, Vadili did not trouble the visitors defence once.

After 6 minutes Dörtyol's Ibrahim Çelik sent in a shot from just outside the area that the Vadili goalkeeper İlhan dived to save,

10 mins : It was all Dörtyol Faruk was put through but his shot was blocked by the advancing İlhan.

27 mins : Another Dörtyol attack ended with Ibrahim Çelik running on into the box on the right but the striker screwed his shot disappointingly wide.

HALF TIME SCORE - 0-0

There was more urgency in Vadili play but the match continued to be a disappointment with two strong defences cancelling out both teams attacks.

Dörtyol much vaunted attack were well held now by the Vadili defence where Captain Umut Menteş was outstanding. Likewise for Dörtyol where Mustafa's Güner and Ali Arslan snubbed out Vadili leading goal scorer Uğur Ökeli.

Vadili had the ball in the Dörtyol net through substitute Serdar but it was ruled out for offside.

Vadili also had a penalty appeal turned down in injury time when Atakan went to ground in the box but referee Fatih correctly waved play on.

FULL TIME SCORE : 0-0

Happy days are here, Again and Again

By Richard Beale

A brace of goals by Esentepe Nigerian winger EFOSA FRANCIS made it 6 points out of 6 and lifted Esentepe out of the automatic relegation places into 14th position, their highest since mid October of last year.

With the Under 21 team winning as well, again it's a very happy Esentepe Village, smiles on peoples faces and believe it or not the sun is out!

It was a very confident team performance by Esentepe who had plenty of possession and at times it was like watching Manchester City play (well maybe I am getting a bit carried away) as the team were stroking the ball around as if they were the league leaders.

Baf Ülkü Yurdu (BUY) were a disappointment, they I understand have had some "in house" problems this week, with several players staging a boycott and missing training. I think the Coach was unable to field his strongest team, BUY were there for the taking an Esentepe took full advantage of this.

Esentepe gambled on the fitness of their leading goalscorer Junior who has a hamstring problem, understandably he was not at his sharpest, but appears to have got through the match with any further damage.

Little was seen of the BUY attack which was led by the giant 6ft 4ins Hafiz, an Esentepe defence well marshalled by Mustafa Kiliç and Hasan Sungur restricted the Nigerian forward to only two chances.

MATCH NOTES :

4 mins : Hafiz was put through inside the Esentepe box, but before he could get a shot away he was thwarted by a Mustafa Kilic challenge.

8 mins : Esentepe hit the woodwork when a free kick from Mahmut found the head of teenager Şükrü whose header deflected off a defender and bounced onto the BUY post before being cleared.

HALF TIME SCORE : 0-0

49 mins : Esentepe were rewarded for their enterprising display when they took the lead with a marvellous engineered goal. Kaan on the right, did a clever back heel to the overlapping Mahmut who sent over a beautiful laden cross finding EFOSA FRANCIS who sent a bullet header into the net. 1-0.

Result :Esentepe KKSK 2 BAF Ülkü Yurdu 0

55 mins : Esentepe Vurkan who was having a magnificent match, broke up a BUY attack and made progress forward before finding Junior on his right. The Cameroon striker looked up and sent an angle drive that flew just over the bar.

65 mins: BUY had their best chance of the match to equalise when Hasan Bucak made a good run down the left and sent over a nice cross that Mustafa Kiliç just got the faintest of touches to that prevented Hafiz the opportunity of a header. The tall Nigerian recovered the ball and with Onur the Esentepe goalkeeper coming out to narrow the angle he shot over the bar from a good position.

87 mins : Esentepe made the game safe with another well worked goal. Ahmet who had been prominent in midfield since coming on in the 78th minute, won the ball in midfield and passed forward to Şükrü, who for one so young showed marvellous judgement by stepping over the ball leaving EFOSA FRANCIS a clear run at goal and he buried his shot into the net. 2-0 90 mins : Ahmet almost got onto the scoresheet himself playing a 1-2 with Efosa, he got in a shot that was deflected just wide of the goal.

FULL TIME SCORE: 2-0

SUMMING UP : Well done team, well done Coach Hüseyin, two successive wins have installed confidence into the team. The team have proved they ain't going to roll over in this tough league, they are nobody's whipping boys.

Celebration Time!
