According to the statement made by TRT and the bulletin of Anadolu Agency, the documentary, which explains what happened at the end of the 1950s until the peace operation of Turkey in 1974, will be screened for the first time on TRT World at 17.30 today (25th October).

In the documentary, in which the story of the Turkish Cypriots is told, the testimonies of the Turkish Cypriots were also consulted, as well as interviews and archive footage.

The Greek Cypriots' demands to unite with Greece, in other words, during the years when Enosis was demanded, the increasing violence in the island over the years caused the Turkish Cypriots to leave their places. The resistance of the Turkish Cypriots against Enosis and the Peace Operations carried out by Turkey to ensure the security of the Turks on the Island will be discussed again with the documentary.

Gonca Şenay was the executive producer of the documentary prepared by TRT World domestic productions, while Özge Ekmen Maden was the producer and Güray Ervin was the cinematographer. The creative team of the documentary, edited by Yusuf Özçelik, includes Selim Durak and Emrullah Ekin.

Commemorating Ziya Rızkî in Girne

Former deputy, mayor, mujahideen commander, and sportsman Ziya Rızkî, who made important contributions to the struggle for the existence of the Turkish Cypriot people, was commemorated with a ceremony on the 27th anniversary of his death.

The first commemoration for Ziya Rizki took place in front of his bust in Girne.

After a moment of silence was observed and the placing of wreaths on the bust, the opening of Ziya Rızkî Square, which was created in cooperation with Girne Municipality and Ziya Rızkî Foundation, was held on Ziya Rızkî Street where his bust is located.

In his speech at the commemoration ceremony, Girne Mayor Nidai Güngördü expressed that they are happy to contribute to the memory of the leader of the society, who made great contributions to the Turkish Cypriot community, and to pass it on to future generations, by naming the intersection of the bust of Rızkî and the street bearing his name as Ziya Rızkî Square.

Güngördü reminded that Ziya Rızkî gathered the troubled municipalities under the umbrella of the union of municipalities and that he raised a city despite the scarce means after the war period, and stated that Rızkî has an important place in the history of municipal administration.

Expressing that he was very happy to create Ziya Rızkî Square in Girne during his tenure, Güngördü stated that he believed this arrangement would help young people learn of the name Ziya Rızkî and his contributions to society.

Speaking at the opening, the Chairman of the Board of Trustees of the Ziya Rızkî Foundation, Doctor Ceyhun Birinci, stated that Rızkî is an important leader who served the Turkish Cypriot Community in many different fields and thanked the Girne Municipality for organising the Ziya Rızkî Square.

Girne Municipality takes over the Ancient Harbour after 9 Years

The Municipality of Girne started a big cleaning campaign on 27th October in the port, where more and more problems are experienced day by day due to the multiplicity and confusion between the responsible authorities.

Girne Mayor Nidai Güngördü entered the ancient port with the municipal police and cleaning teams to assess the elements that cause pollution in a study he personally directed.

Girne Mayor Nidai Güngördü stated that after the authority and responsibility for the port were taken from the municipality and transferred to the Ministry of Tourism and Environment 9 years ago the historical port began to suffer problems. He noted that many problems came to the fore due to the confusion of which authority had what responsibility for the various functions of managing the port.

About 5 years ago, Mayor Güngördü said, in order to avoid confusion of authority, the Municipality of Girne proposed that a secretariat should be established at the port under the supervision of the Municipality. These demands remained unanswered.

Stating that the port, which now has severe problems in infrastructure, environmental pollution, and visual amenity, has ceased to be a center of attraction. Güngördü emphasised that Girne Municipality, which is responsible for every point in the city, is also responsible for the historical port, which is the apple of the city's and country's eyes, and will fulfill the requirements of its responsibility.

Güngördü stated that Girne Municipality will be at the port with its teams every day from now on in order to eliminate 9 years of neglect in the port, which is the showcase of Northern Cyprus.

Güngördü stated that all ministries related to the port, departments, tradesmen, fishermen, municipality, touristic yacht operators, and all public and private stakeholders should know their responsibilities, and underlined that the Municipality will intervene wherever there is pollution or harm whether in the public or private sector. Declaring that the cleaning campaign they have started in the port will be continuous, Güngördü said that they will work hard to make the historical port a place where tourists and locals can be hosted again.

Güngördü said that stakeholders should ask why tourists and locals left the port and that all involved should act with a common mind and restore the port to its former charm.

Noting that there should be a discipline amongst all the stakeholders, institutions, organisations, and businesses in the port, Güngördü said that it is the duty of the municipality to ensure this harmony and said that they will not allow pollution and uncontrolled change.

Noting that 5 years ago, they called upon the Department of Antiquities and Museums to restore the exteriors of 2 buildings in the port to their original historical appearance and to provide an example to other buildings in the municipality. Güngördü repeated this request and reiterated that the Department of Antiquities and Museums should undertake all the costs and labour for the exteriors of the 2 buildings and demanded that these requests be answered within 2 days.

Emphasising that the most suitable season has come to carry out repairs and renovations in the port and no time should be wasted, Güngördü stressed that they will intervene in all pollution and problems in the port from this day forward and that criminal and legal sanctions will be applied against those who create problems.

Güngördü further stated that Girne Municipality will be at the port every day but their aim is not to punish the tradesmen but to ensure that all stakeholders win by providing discipline here.

Güngördü said that the Ministry of Tourism and Environment has a project related to the arrangement of the Historic Port, but it has not started until today and emphasised that work should be started to improve the appearance of the port, which is the showcase of the country's tourism. Reminding that no one is against a project that will protect the historical texture, environment and restore the original character of the historical port, Güngördü explained that the project had been suspended due to the ever-changing governments, and stated that the port could not be left idle while the project was awaited.

Noting that the castle walls had been cleared of grass and trees, Güngördü expressed that they were also ready to cooperate with the relevant ministries and all stakeholders regarding the port. Güngördü asked everyone in the port, including tradesmen, fishermen, touristic yacht operators, cafes, and restaurants, to support their work and obey the rules so that the port can become a centre of attraction again.

taken by the UN on ensuring accessibility and the participation of people with disabilities.

Emphasising the importance of the municipalities' adoption and consideration of the regulations aimed at facilitating the lives of the disabled, Güngördü reminded that they have made it mandatory for all workplaces to be accessible to the disabled, with the standards offered by KTMMOB since July 2014, when they took office.

The Beatles and the MBE that was returned

By Ahmet Abdulaziz....

26th October 2021. The importance of this date is not that 3 days later I will be celebrating my 66th birthday, but the fact that 56 years ago, on this particular date the Beatles were awarded the MBE (Member of the Most Excellent Order of the British Empire). That was the time when I had not even started listening to their music. In fact, I had started listening to the Beatles when the band was nearing disbanding.

Getting this award was something special for the Beatles, as it had certified their official recognition from Her Majesty. But it was not just that only. It was the first time that this award was given to someone from the field of music. Previously it was reserved for the veterans of war.

It was reported that Harold Wilson, the then British Prime Minister, had lobbied for the Beatles, in order to increase the popularity of his Labour party among the youth. However, ultimately he met a big backlash on this issue. There was a strong reaction from some parts of the society. A number of ex-holders of this award, felt disgusted, by finding themselves at par with the pop musicians. At that time, in fact, Rock'n' roll music was still not fully accepted by society.

The result was obvious. Some previous honourees returned their medals, to mark their protest. One man, Col. Frederick Wagg, went a step ahead and sent back 12 medals which he had earned for bravery in World Wars. He also resigned from the Labour Party. Later on, John Lennon was quoted as saying, "They got them for killing people. We got ours for entertaining. I'd say we deserve ours more."

In music circles too, some had appreciated the decision of honouring the Beatles, but on the contrary, some had thought that it was too early. For the Beatles, however, no doubt this particular award had added a lot to their value and had helped in further strengthening their position in the world of music.

John was later quoted as saying that they were so nervous at that time, that they went into the bathroom of the palace and smoked marijuana. However, later on, this statement was refuted by George Harrison, saying that it was not Marijuana, but a regular cigarette.

Much was written about that particular ceremony held at the Buckingham Palace, in the press at that time, mostly because the Beatles were the most popular at that time. They were the celebrity, and their every action, move, or statement was finding major space in the newspapers the next morning.

However, some 4 years later, the music world was shocked when John Lennon returned his award of an MBE. That particular incident had become the most sensational news at that time. Being a peace activist, John had decided to return his medal by way of a protest for the British Involvement in Nigeria - Biafra war.

John was the only musician who had returned the medal after receiving it. There were some other notable persons who had refused to receive the award, but John had so far been the only one who had kept the award for 4 years and then returned it. The medal is still in the vault of the British Government.

So that was the story of what happened on 26th October 1965. It was an important event in the lives of Paul, John, George, and Ringo. The group became disbanded, and the four Beatles parted their ways. John and George are no more, but still after 56 years the fans of the group still remember them and this date.

Kyrenia Animal Rescue (KAR) - News Update

NATIONAL CAT DAY

National Cat Day is celebrated on October 29. It was created to bring awareness to the number of cats that need to be rescued each year. Cats remind us that just when you think they've lost interest in you, they'll turn around and melt your hearts. When it appears they're too busy staring out at passing cars, chasing nylon mice, and sending tiny multi-coloured balls to their under-the-refrigerator graves, they'll somehow let you know that their very world revolves around you. Just wait. It'll happen when you least expect it. Cats have their own timetable.

We have so many gorgeous cats and kittens at our rescue centre all waiting for thir furever homes. Please come and visit them (and our dogs and puppies too of course). The rescue centre is open 7 days a week from 9am to 1pm.

Holly & Jess travelled from Scotland to TRNC with KAR Pet Travel recently. It was a "door to door" service (just one of the pet travel options that we offer) which just left their owners to concentrate on their own journey (albeit still worrying about their "girls"). Jess is a very nervy dog and both Audrey and Tom were concerned how she would cope with the journey.

We cannot say that she "sat back and enjoyed ride" but she was not overly stressed. As soon as she came out of her travel box - into the welcoming arms of Tom then Audrey - her tail began to wag quicker and quicker. Holly, on the other hand, was not bothered about the journey at all - she loved all of the new people that she met. But she too was ecstatic when she was reunited with Audrey & Tom.

archaic. Nature in its deepest meaning and values is in the centre of it, extending to the meaning of woman and motherhood with all of them in balance. The close-up photos of nature images she took in Barcelona further explain her appreciation of nature.

Series of small art pieces where she combines nature with her hands' work, a display of symbiosis between nature and mankind.

Series of thoughts about life, phases of life, they seem to tumble down but are held upright, somehow life always goes on. Here her work reminds me of old cultures in South America I have come across.

Another series of respect and love she shows with her small monuments of soil from places she has lived and which are part of her: Australia, Plataniskia, Barcelona and more...

Small monuments of her thoughts and talks to the material she has formed and brought to life, and now, she says..."they speak to me"..... and they speak to us.

The exhibition was open until 22nd October.

Earth-Life-Woman. Mother Earth gives Life – we know that – and all three terms are inseparably connected, they are one unit. It is the title of Pembe Gaziler's exhibition at the Eaved House in Nicosia which opened on October 15. We had missed her presence in the art scene for far too long. Welcome back, Pembe.

I conducted an interview with her in 2012 at a time when she led a most stressful and confusing life, three corner stones, on the one side her art which always has meant a lot to her – and to us - on the other sides the new project of 'art therapy' which was very important for her for her teaching in school, and finally tango, yes, tango.

During the day teaching art, at night teaching tango. She then said to me: "I felt miserable to have to neglect my own art but the organisation of our life ate me up." At the end of our interview I concluded: 'There are some projects you start in life which tend to develop their own momentum; one just has to take care that they don't overtake you.'

Her year of study at a very good art school in Barcelona has shown her the direction on the road she wanted to follow. Her work is thought provoking, symbolic,

North and South Cyprus Lions working together for the first time

Lions united North and South of Cyprus for the First Time for a bi-communal activity

Readers mail

From Fikret Sendil

The island of Cyprus welcomes a groundbreaking moment in the name of the Lions Movement for the first time since its division in 1974.

The Lions Walk To Serve Foundation, operating within the jurisdiction of the Lions district of 117-B (Cyprus and North Greece), met with the Mağusa Mesarya Lions Club serving in Northern Cyprus, the undistricted area.

The ethnically divided island of Cyprus is home to both the Lions district 117-B (Greek Cypriot Community) and IDENT 5855 Undistricted Cyprus (Turkish Cypriot Community).

Lions Clubs and Lions Foundations operating in Southern Cyprus enjoy all kinds of international engagements since they are registered in 117-B, the official Lions administrative district of the island of Cyprus, while Lions clubs operating in Northern Cyprus have an undistricted structure and do not belong to anywhere. Despite this fact, Lions Clubs International acknowledges the northern part of Cyprus as an undistricted territory but not a separate geographical area from the rest of Cyprus.

While the Cyprus peace negotiations, which have been going on for half a century, have not yet come to a conclusion, the Lions managed to bring together the north and south of Cyprus for the first time through a bi-communal activity.

The Lions Walk To Serve Foundation, established in 2013, presented mini footballs produced for the visually impaired children living in the Turkish Cypriot Community.

A Ball for All is the world's first mini football for blind children which has been supported and highlighted as the global service project during Lions Europa Forum 2021 in Thessaloniki.

PDG George Savvides, the President of The Walk To Serve Foundation and members of the Foundation Committee from the Greek Cypriot Community visited Famagusta Old Town in the northern part of Cyprus and met with members of Mağusa Mesarya at a friendly lunch meeting.

The friendly gathering of the Lions of both sides at such an event is being one and only example in the island's Lions history since 1974, in which a Lions Foundation registered in 117-B (Greek Cypriot Community) and an undistricted Cyprus Lions club in the north (Turkish Cypriot Community) decided to take steps for community service.

The friendly lunch meeting began with the welcome speech of Fikret Şendil, a member of Magusa Mesarya Lions, which was followed by PDG George Savvides' address. Afterwards, the balls were delivered to the members of Mesarya by the members of the Foundation.

Ibrahim Genç, the President of the Mağusa Mesarya extended his appreciation to the Greek Cypriot Lions for their support through the Lions Walk To Serve Foundation and congratulated the successful works of the Foundation.

The Lions have agreed to reunite for joint service activities as soon as possible.

Sevil Emirzade presents her new book to Mayor Nidai Güngördü

Author Sevil Emirzade presented her book entitled "Good Luck Cyprus' Old Stories with Blue Shutters-Let the New ones be Written with Friendship" to Girne Mayor Nidai Güngördü in advance of the book promotion event that will take place on Tuesday, 2nd November 2021 at 15:00 at the Girne Municipality Art Gallery together with a mini-concert by Soprano Demetra Mustafaoğlu.

The book will be published in 4 languages (Turkish, English, German, Greek).

Reminding us that Sevil Emirzade has made great contributions to the literary life of the country both as an educator and as a writer, Güngördü thanked Emirzade for both her visit to him and the book presentation.

Güngördü pointed out that a writer's creativity is also a responsibility.

Please help us to help him in his journey home.

FOREVER HOME NEEDED

Mary is 6 months old and her "foster" family is leaving soon. Unfortunately no posts were shared previously so she has No time left. She's used to living indoors. They will leave her at the shelter so she must find a place immediately. She's used to living at home so she will die at the shelter. We will cover all vaccinations and food... Please please share.

Hope 4 Pets - News Update

Post by Stephanie Harrison-Croft - 27th October

Thank you so much to each and every one of our members who have donated and promised to donate for this poor boy to have the necessary and immediate operation on his elbow which has now been done.

Sadly unbeknown to us in between us appealing and his op he was taken somewhere where parvovirus is rife so we are hoping as a youngster who we believe to be an unvaccinated street dog has not contracted this terrible disease.

We have also found ourselves in a position where the lady who found him cannot keep him so we have had quite a dilemma on our hands.

Thankfully our lovely Mairead Sweeney Malone and Robert have come up trumps again when we were in desperate need and will now foster him.

Mairead who will hopefully collect him tomorrow has named him Oisin ~ Little Deer. Such a beautiful name.

(uh-sheen or o-sheen) Meaning “little / little deer”. In Irish mythology, Oisin was a son of legendary warrior Fionn MacCool and the goddess Sive. His mother was turned into a deer by the Dark Druid, and she raised him in the forest for seven years; when his father found him while hunting, he recognized the boy as his own son and gave him the name “little deer.”

Thank you to Yeliz Osman Cin for all your help xxx

We are keeping everything crossed for Oisin. Please do the same.

The 4th ATA Cookery course at the Black Olive Cafe, Alsancak

Smoke, Flames, Fire - Call the Fire Brigade – NO WAIT, it’s only a Turkish Cypriot village barbecue.

At the last week of the Anglo Turkish Association of Northern Cyprus (ATA) cookery course, week four taught people how to prepare and cook traditional Turkish Cypriot village food on a barbecue. Şeftali, Köfte Kebap, Köfte ve Nohut, sauces and side dishes such as, Humuz, Patates ve Pancar Salatası, Kisri, Badadez Salata.

Tutor, Unal Karaca said, “A barbecue to expats is a burger in a bun but there is a vast array of exciting and easy to cook barbecue foods as any Turkish Cypriot knows. Hopefully today’s lesson has shown to everyone it is just as easy to prepare and cook Turkish Cypriot village food on a barbecue as it is to do a burger or sausage”.

Association member Jenny Armstrong echoed Unal’s comments when she said, “Today’s lesson was brilliantly simple and easy to follow, although the thought of handling an animal’s stomach membrane to make the Şeftali was off putting at first but the end result tasted wonderful”.

Talk around the dining table whilst eating their barbecue meal was centered on how good this cookery course by the ATA had been, and could another be arranged.

ATA Chairman, Philip Lloyd thanked course tutors Vicki and Unal Karaca for all the hard work they have put in over the last four weeks to ensure the ATA Cookery Course was a success and congratulated them on turning a group of amateur wannabees into a well-oiled cooking machine ready to demonstrate their new-found skills to family and friends. He further said, “This course was a good example of the friendliness of ATA’s members, because four weeks ago members and guests who didn’t know each other came together to learn something, and whilst learning about Turkish Cypriot village food have had a fun educational experience and made new friends that will last a lifetime!”.

With talk by everyone of having a reunion next year, as a memento of the course everyone was presented with a certificate of proficiency in being able to cook a typical Turkish Cypriot village meal.

Orientation Days for students started in ARUCAD

At the beginning of the 2021-2022 Academic Year Fall Semester, Arkin Creative Arts and Design University (ARUCAD) started orientation activities for its new students, organised between October 20-24.

ARUCAD has started orientation activities for newly registered students between 20-24 October in order to support their adaptation to both the University and the environment. The orientation events, which lasted for five days, allowed not only the new students, but also the candidates who want to study art, design and communication at ARUCAD in the coming years, to get to know the structure and possibilities of the University.

Opening with a welcome speech, ARUCAD Rector Prof. Dr. Asim Vehbi addressed the students on the first day of the orientation:

“I congratulate you on your decision to come to North Cyprus and study art, design and communication, and I would like to promise you that as the ARUCAD family, we will ensure that you do not regret this decision. With the workshops, studios and laboratories here, you will have the opportunity to achieve whatever you envision in your imagination. While doing this, trust that your talent will be properly guided by your expert artist instructors. Create as you feel like, and don't let anyone put a limit on you. At the end of each term, we organise our traditional exhibitions where your original works reflect your creativity. This will be a great motivation for you.

Events are scheduled for the next few days to make it easier for you to adapt to our University, the Island and your new friends. Don't hesitate to have fun while making sure you have the necessary information.”

Within the scope of the program, Dilara Ferit concert, one of the young talents of Cyprus, was given at ARUCAD Garden on Wednesday, October 20. A performance by DJ Barış Turna & B2B Sonya took place on Thursday, October 21 at 20.00. On Friday, October 22, at 20:00, Charlie Chaplin's Modern Times was screened at GNÇ Cyprus Cinema Night.

On Saturday, October 23, ARUCAD's Faculty of Music and Performing Arts, included the Acting, Sound Design and Modern Dance Departments, which will be opened following the completion of the renovation of the Former Wholesalers Hall in Bandabuliya, Nicosia next year, was introduced. A contemporary dance performance by S. Handan Ergiydiren Doğan, choreographed by Asst. Assoc. Dr. Bekir Şimşek, was performed at Art Space, the university's activity area in the Walled City.

On Sunday, October 24, the last day of the orientation, a trip to the Tashkent Nature Park was arranged. After the nature walk with the students, the Rehabilitation Center was visited and a welcome picnic held with the students and their teachers.

Within the scope of the 2021-2022 Academic Year Orientation Activities organised by ARUCAD between October 20-24, students will be able to participate in various workshops, exhibition trips, graffiti events, district cultural tours and academic orientation presentations that will continue throughout the day at ARUCAD Garden.

It's Raining Goals at Görneç! - Goller Yağıyor!

result : GÖRNEÇ KSK 3 YENİBOĞAZIÇİDSK 3

By Richard Beale

Sunday October 25 ; AKSA League 1 : Görneç Üç Şehitler Stadium.

Görneç and Yeniboğaziçi share 6 goals in goal feast thriller

On a glorious sunny Sunday afternoon, I asked my wife if she wanted to go anywhere? she said no so I got her permission to go and watch another local football match! This time it didn't involve Esentepe, well Görneç are Esentepe's opponents next match so it was a good opportunity to run an eye over them. I made the 30 minute picturesque journey over the mountains to Serdalı and then onto Görneç. I like Gornec's stadium which is very quirky nestled on a hillside with stunning views. They also make me feel welcome when I visit them and before the match I enjoyed a bulgur kofte and a Turkish coffee in the small snack bar inside the ground.

They should have taken an early lead when a long ball beat the Görneç offside trap leaving Zubeyir in the clear but he snatched widely with his shot and ballooned his effort high and wide.

He made amends in the 28th minute providing a right wing cross that was headed home by the powerful OYTUN ÇORBA. 0-1

Görneç eventually regained some semblance of control, midfielder Abdurrahman tried his luck from outside the box, bringing a leaping save from the visitors goalkeeper Remzi, pushing the ball away for a corner. From that corner in the 40th minute HACI DURDU ÖZER at the far post got in a powerful header to equalise for Görneç. HALF TIME SCORE ; 1-1

The opening exchanges were very scrappy with the high bounce on the synthetic surface causing in particular problems for Yeniboğaziçi.

Görneç midfield trio of Abdurrahman, Mehmet Ince and Levent were becoming dominant, especially the talented Abdurrahman who seemed to be the architect of every Görneç move.

With Görneç substitute Mehmet Özsoy who on the left wing was very quick, Yeniboğaziçi were coming under intense pressure.

Görneç were rewarded in the 60th minute when ABDURRAHMAN BENGİ scored direct from a low corner kick from the right. 2-1

Görneç's third goal in the 69th minute, followed a superb move, a Yeniboğaziçi corner was cleared to Mehmet Özsoy who showed a clean pair of heels at speed before finding ABDURRAHMAN BENGİ who slotted the ball pass the advancing Remzi. 3-1

Görneç were not playing like a team stuck on the bottom with no points I thought the match was done and dusted, Yeniboğaziçi had other ideas.

In the 71st minute a through ball split the Görneç defence, AHMET YALÇIN timed his run to perfection to shoot past goalkeeper Hasan. 3-2

Yeniboğaziçi sensing Görneç were rattled piled forward and equalised with an almost identical goal in the 79th minute, this time it was defender

ALİ OZAY ÇELİK who shot past Hasan. 3-3

Amazingly Yeniboğaziçi should have snatched the winner in the 89th minute when a cross from Serhat found Tolga Kara unmarked at the near post who headed wide from a great position.

FULL TIME SCORE ; 3-3

SUMMING UP : Firstly am glad that I made the effort, it was so easy to stay at home, with a 3-3 scoreline as expected a very entertaining match. Yeniboğaziçi would be grateful for a point, where as Görneç will be the most disappointed of the 2 teams, the match was in their grasp and they are still awaiting for their first win of the season- hopefully not against Esentepe next week!

MAN OF THE MATCH ---- ABDURRAHMAN BENGİ - had a magnificent match, very skilful was all over the pitch deserved to be on a winning side.

Match action - Görneç in green and white.

GÜCÜCHA for Esentepe in final 5 minutes

CHINA BAZAAR GENÇLİK GÜÇÜ TSK 2 ESENTEPE KKSK 0

By Richard Beale

Saturday October 23, 2021: AKSA League 1: Lefkoşa Ataturk Stadium.

Esentepe suffered heartbreak again losing the match in the final 5 minutes after defending resolutely and stoutly for 85 minutes of this game.

Esentepe must have had a miserable journey back home on Saturday evening after suffering yet another heartbreak at their "bogey" ground the Ataturk Stadium. Many visits in the past have ended similarly and this match was no different.

The giant Atatürk Stadium (capacity 15,000) was its usual soulless self with around 100 spectators inside the ground, surrounded by empty terraces and stands, creating no atmosphere whatsoever.

Esentepe Coach Kılıç Ali Kaharman set his side up with a flat back 5, with Hüseyin Ermiş and Emre in midfield supplemented with Şükrü helping out. Up front Eser ploughed a lone furrow with Hüseyin Deynekli wide on the left using his speed on breakaways.

To a large extent the defensive plan worked for 85 minutes with Esentepe surrendering the midfield and the defence rock solid soaking up any Gücü attacks. Esentepe relied on quick breakaways mostly involving the impressive Şükrü who was a constant danger but also working back to help in midfield.

Esentepe restricted Gücü in the first half to a couple of long shots outside the box the best coming from Erin in the 29th minute that just went over Osmond's crossbar.

Esentepe's only chance was created in the final minute of the first half when Eser and Şükrü combined to set up a shooting chance for Emek who miss hit his shot wide.

HALF TIME SCORE 0-0.

The second half started in the same fashion with Gücü having plenty of the ball but rarely threatening Osmond in the Esentepe goal.

The 17 year old goalkeeper playing only his third senior League appearance continues to impress me, especially in dealing with crosses and has been a surprise success this season.

Esentepe had a half chance in the 65th minute from a short corner, Deniz put in a cross Şenol bending down sent a header straight into the arms of goalkeeper Emre.

They had a better chance following a quick breakaway in 75th minute led by Şükrü beating a couple of players before finding Deniz who shot past the diving Emre but also just past the left hand post.

It looked like Esentepe's hard work and toil would be rewarded with a valuable point against the promotion favourites but as often is the case "football always bites you on the bum!"

In the 85th minute another cross from Ahmet Coşkun on the right to the far post was for once missed by the Esentepe defence and ÜMİTCAN BABAHAAN rose to head past Osmond. 1-0

Before Esentepe could re-organise themselves they were two down courtesy of a fine goal by substitute MUHAMMET HASAN ÇİRKİN picking the ball just outside the area he fired an unstoppable shot past Osmond. 2-0

To sum up a miserable last 5 minutes for Esentepe with the last kick of the game Deniz was put clean through with only the goalkeeper to beat but somehow scooped his shot over the bar.

FULL TIME SCORE : 2-0.

SUMMING UP : Can't fault the team for their commitment and effort, the defensive plan worked for 85 minutes but as we know football is played for 90 minutes. Unfortunately conceding late goals by Esentepe is becoming a bad habit and the team have slipped into the relegation places, far too early in the season to panic but next week's home match against bottom side Görneç is a must win.

They shall not pass!, Esentepe (white) defend in numbers.

Heartbreak for Esentepe
