A great week this week with lots of contributions arriving early so we were able to arrange an early publication

1st November to 8th November 2022

CyprusScene weekly review 29th October 2022

For some time we have planned to introduce weekly reviews in video and podcast formats so we can reach a wider audience with our contributors news and reviews so this is where we have started and this is what we said:

Hello my friends of CyprusScene, my name is Chris Elliott and may I welcome you to this review.

Firstly may I thank all those wonderful people for their help and support given to me at the passing my friend Margaret Sheard.

She is gone but still with me in spirit and motivating me to develop our CyprusScene with new ideas and features to share the news and reviews of the lovely people and organisations in Northern Cyprus which we share with the world.

So what's been happening this week, well we are still suffering internet difficulties when designing our online e-newspaper but we are now committed to publishing for Wednesday so you have the very latest rather than waiting for old news and reviews at the weekend.

If you would like to make a contribution for publication do please send it as early as possible so we can give it an early push.

Talking of contributing, if anybody would like to talk about their projects or interests, please email me at the email address below and we will arrange to meet on line for a chat which we will then share for you.

The story of the week or month had been that of the British Residents' Society, the oldest ex-pat NGO in the TRNC with a long history of liaising with the government which they continue to do whilst trying to establish the full facts about current residency regulations.

I would like to thank Brian Parker for his article about our recent visit to Lourujina to meet Raziye Koicaismail and talk about when he served with the UN in Cyprus and in the village in 1970/71.

If other readers or listeners have similar Cyprus Memories do write to us as we have so many other memories recorded by Margaret over the years and they are fascinating and part of Cyprus heritage.

Our dear friend Heidi Trautmann is contributing many articles about the arts and music and for football fans, Richard Beal brings us weekly match schedules and match reports.

We also share lots of news of entertainment events and there are so many other subjects we could publish, so please start sending them to us so other people can see them through the many CyprusScene shares.

We are now publishing on our website and sharing on social media pages and in our weekly online CyprusScene e-newspaper and when we have time, we are also sharing news and reviews in our podcast chat channels.

If there are anybody out there interested in lending a little help and being part of our small exclusive team, please drop me a line by email.

Thank you and that's a brief roundup for this past week of our News by People for the People and we will meet you again soon.

So have a nice week, stay safe and we will meet again soon.

President Tatar evaluated the murder of a TRNC citizen

President Ersin Tatar made evaluations on the murder of TRNC citizen Tansu Çıdan in the Greek Cypriot Central Prison and called on the Greek Cypriot administration to identify and punish the criminals in this desperate situation that resulted in death.

Stating that the murder of 41-year-old TRNC citizen Tansu Çıdan, who was convicted and held in the Greek Cypriot Central Prison, was a very serious incident, and such a desperate event occurred in the prison where the Greek Cypriot administration is responsible for ensuring security and protecting human life, Tatar added that it is also both thought-provoking and the result of great negligence.

As the TRNC Presidency, an initiative was taken in the presence of both the UN and Greek Cypriot authorities through the Technical Committee on Crime and Criminal Matters, and information and explanation were requested.

Tatar condemned strongly this negligence of the Greek Cypriot authorities and made a call for the identification of the criminals as soon as possible.

TRNC slams the RoC for creating a “Day of Missing Persons in Cyprus”

Press Statement by the TRNC Ministry of Foreign Affairs regarding designation of 29 October by the Greek Cypriot side as the “Day of Missing Persons in Cyprus”

The Greek Cypriot administration of Southern Cyprus stated once again on 29 October 2022 that 29 October is designated as the “Day of Missing Persons in Cyprus” whose fate has not been verified since 1974. We strongly condemn the Greek Cypriot administration for continuing to exploit the issue of missing persons as a political tool. The Greek Cypriot side totally disregards the losses of the Turkish Cypriot People whose agony started in 1963 way into 1974 ending only with the timely intervention of Motherland Türkiye deriving from her guarantor rights

The Greek Cypriot side who claims that it is against the politicization of the issue of missing persons in Cyprus, is indeed exploiting the issue as a propaganda tool. Coinciding this commemoration with the date of the establishment of the Republic of Türkiye is also disrespectful and is an insult to the Turkish Cypriot people.

The Greek Cypriot side, at every opportunity, resorts to the futile effort of ignoring the Turkish Cypriot people, its only counterpart on the Cyprus issue, and treating Türkiye as its counterpart. We invite the Greek Cypriot side, who has gone as far as manipulating the historical facts of the island according to its own interests, even using the agony of the relatives of the disappeared, to act with prudence and to refrain from taking steps that will jeopardize the work of the Committee on Missing Persons.

The Turkish Republic of Northern Cyprus has always done its part to prevent the exploitation of the issue of missing persons as a political tool and supported the work of the Committee of Missing Persons, the only mechanism authorised to handle the issue of missing persons, and will continue to do so.

A meaningful dialogue which will pave the way for the two sovereign equal States to live side by side in good neighbourly relations can only be established between the two Peoples if and when the Greek Cypriot side accepts the fact that the Turkish Cypriot people are the co-owners of this island.. .

ARUCAD has changed View of Art in Cyprus – Asim Vehbi

Arkın Creative Arts and Design University (ARUCAD) Rector, Prof. Dr. Asım Vehbi, said in a television program, "Despite people's negative perspectives on art and design in our region, we have doubled the number of our students. With ARUCAD, people's perspectives on art have changed in Cyprus."

Rector Vehbi noted that ARUCAD, which started with the concept of a boutique university and focused on art-design-communication in the region, has a different structure from other universities. Observing that businessman Erbil Arkın aimed to make ARUCAD a sought-after university first in the region and later in the world, Vehbi said, "This year, 3 new departments (Sound Arts Design, Acting, Modern Dance) have been added to ARUCAD under the name of Faculty of Music and Performing Arts.

These are the only such faculties on the island. In addition to our four-year undergraduate programs, we are planning to open an associate degree program for the first time this year. We plan to open the Interior Design associate degree program together with the Furniture Manufacturers Association 'MSD'. In this way, we will guide the talented young people who produce in their field and train the intermediate staff needed by the sector. With the opening of this department, we will have achieved one of our goals."

I have always wanted to do a parachute jump

By Ahmet Abdulaziz….

Many like me I am sure, dream of parachute jumping. Unfortunately, for me, this dream remains a dream because I do not know where to start. I believe that sometimes its better to let a dream remain a dream; this is what I have been doing for years.

Every year at the TRNC national day parade in Lefkoşa I love to watch the paratroopers jumping. The way they jump from the airplane and come down slowly, swinging right and left, and then land, right in front of all of us. People clapped loudly as they watched them touching down on the ground very slowly and smoothly. That's really fantastic to see and for me the most attractive part of the event.

I always wished to be one of those paratroopers but as I said earlier, it's always better for some wishes to remain a wish. That's the way our lives move on. However, it does not stop me from putting myself in the place of those paratroopers. How do they feel, when they jump out of the plane? I always try to find an answer and I always tell myself at the moment of jumping they feel almost the same that we feel what we feel when we go down in a fast elevator.

However, it must have been very difficult for the person who had made the first parachute jump, to understand what his whole body would feel when falling down. That was really amazing. In fact that particular event had occurred on 22nd October 1797, when Andre – Jacques Garnerin made the first-ever parachute jump in Paris.

Leonardo DaVinci is the person who conceived the idea of parachutes, But it took quite a long time to put that theory in practice. In 1783, Louis Sebastien Lenormand, a Frenchman, tried to make the first parachute by joining two umbrellas and jumping down from a tree.

However, Andre Jacques Garnerin succeeded in designing a parachute, that would slow down the speed, when falling and landing. The story of conceiving the design of this parachute is also interesting. He had spent three years in prison during the French Revolution. During this period he worked on the idea of preparing something that would slow down the speed of a person or object when falling down from a high altitude.

He came up with the final idea in 1797. His first parachute was a canopy 23 feet in diameter. A basket was made to hang down, attached with suspension lines. The first official display was made on 22nd October 1797 in Paris.

Garnerin attached his parachute to a hydrogen balloon. Seated in the attached basket, he ascended the balloon to the height of 3,200 feet. At that point, he released the parachute from the balloon. He landed, without any serious injury or whatever. The experiment was considered successful, with some weak points, which were ratified later on.

At that moment, he did not know that there must have been one or more air vents in the parachute, that would help it in coming down but slowly. Due to this reason, his parachute landed ultimately but after much difficulty. Garnerin was too shaky after having a rough parachute jump, but was happy to have done it.

What happened after that is history that we all know. The parachute and the parachute jumping over the years went through many experiments and refinements to reach the present-day shape of various parachutes.

I however still wish to experience a parachute jump. But when?

For more of the history of the parachute click on this link below.

20th International North Cyprus Music Festival – Arman Ratip

By Heidi Trautmann….

Piano Recital Arman Ratip – The Great Improviser

Thursday evening, 27 October 2022, Arman Ratip appeared on stage in white, smiling down on us, his audience, in brilliant white as usual, we have never seen him in any other outfit.

White, the colour of Innocence, of self-renewal or self-reinvention. In my interview with him in 2006 for Cyprus Today, I called him the Great Improviser; he has no notes of his compositions written down, he plays from memory, and yes, perhaps at the one or other concert, depending on his mood, he re-invents himself and improvises.

I would call that the absolute freedom. Read his life story click here, it is the basis for his music compositions:

The photos speak for themselves; I have also attached a critic click belwo by Jane Kingston, USA included in the programme, and there is the final statement of her about him: .'To have the courage always to go where angels fear to tread.'

The programme included:

Ballade of the Aliens
Proxima
Flamenco Ballade
Aman Avcı Vurma Beni
The Spy from Istanbul

Niksarın Fidanları

Karaman Church had a wonderful musical concert

By Heidi Trautmann….

The Friends of Karaman Church gave an invittion for a concert with on Piano: Eser Öktem and Piano and Cello: Püren Eda Gözer and Fikri Toros

Being in Karmi always gives me the feeling of time standing still, nothing has changed, the guests gathering in the yard around the table with wine bottles, exchanging news, then entering the church, with the same very special atmosphere as all these years in the past.

The first part of the programme was with the pianist Eser Ökten and Franz Liszt – Sonata in B Minor S.178. I have heard him play in 2019 in Bellapais and I wrote the following text to which I have nothing to add. A great performance.
Programme in Bellapais

Bach-Liszt – Prelude & Fuge in A minor

Franz Liszt – Années de Pelerinage:Première Année – Suisse VIII: Vallée d'Obermann

Franz Liszt – Sonata in B minor S.178

Eser Ökten was deeply involved in a dialogue, debate, even confrontation with Liszt, which was reinforced by his continuously moving lips. I had the impression he was asking: 'Is that what you wanted to say?' Soft tones, rather feminine, than thundering, dominating, victorious, again humble, crushed…. his hands led us through a wide field of human emotions….then again he leaves a single tone standing…. and he listens…. races after it, turns around and there is another tone…alone by itself and he picks it up softly and continues.

The second part was with Püren Eda Gözer – Cello, and Fikri Toros – Piano – and a very nice programme:

Pachebel : Canon in D

Albinoni : Adagio in G
A. Mozart : Ave Verum Corpus
Schubert : Ave Maria
I. Tchaikovsky : Nocturne in D minor Op.19, No. 4
Piazzolla : Oblivion

Pieces perfect for cello/piano, music to make us peaceful, to open our inside rooms to this wonderful music. The interaction between the two musicians, Fikri Toros and Püren Eda Gözer, was perfect, and all pieces were very sensitively played.

The proceeds of this event will go to the upkeep of the church, the true centre of the village of Karaman and a piece of Cyprus' history.

A big thank you to the artists for this evening;

Girne Photo Exhibition – Outside of 'Once Upon a Time'

By Heidi Trautmann….

The Photo Exhibition – Outside of 'Once Upon a Time' is at the Girne Public Library by Gazi Yüksel – An Assemblage of Today and Yesterday – 25 Oct – 15 Nov 2022.

The TRNC Cultural Department under the leadership of Şirin Zaferyıldızı Zaimağaoğlu is continuing its project to bring artists and their work to the closer attention of the public in the rooms of local libraries.

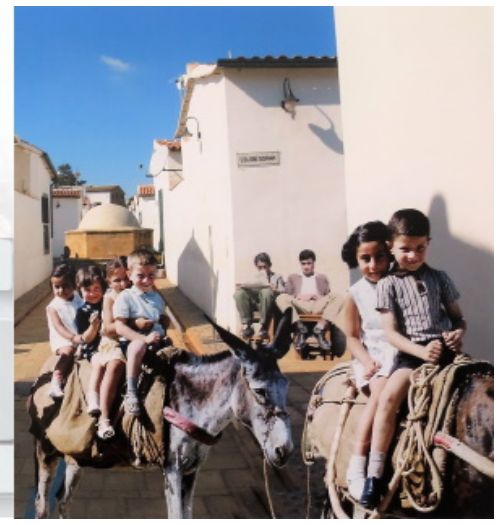

For the next three weeks the photographer and artist Gazi Yüksel will be guest in the upper exhibition rooms with his project that took him nine years to complete and I can only say, he did so with great success. I have seen the exhibition in Nicosia in April and I always wish and suggest that important exhibitions and cultural events should travel across the island. Click below to read my text of the April exhibition.

Literature and the Arts – here Photography – are both carriers of time and culture, so they complement and support each other. Some people love reading and want to live and follow their own imagination but most people are better and more successfully reached by visual effects, visual stories. That has been so during the entire history of humanity, the first recordings in places where our ancestors lived, were drawings, visual stories.

With his project, Gazi Yüksel wants to bring the shadows of the past alive in surroundings of today, as I have already said under the above link.

I strongly recommend that foreign residents, also teachers with their school classes, and especially students of the nearby universities go and visit this exhibition, there is a lot to learn and there is a lot to smile about.

By Richard Beale….

According to the song by Fiddler's Dram in the 70's, what more can you ask for glorious weather, good company, great grub and an ice cold bee r (courtesy of Fast Food Takeaway, Alsancak), a good game of football, 3 points and more beer at our local in Esentepe – a great day out!

Saturday, October 29, 2022: AKSA League 1: Lapta Şht Şevket Kadır Stadium.

Weather: Dry, sunny and mild.

Always nice to visit Lapta whose supporters are always friendly and welcoming, a large crowd witness a good entertaining match, played in good spirits between the teams and refereed in excellent fashion by Ali Özer.

With regular right full back Mustafa Soytürk serving a 4 match match suspension, his natural replacement Mahmut Izoğul also out with a shoulder injury then Esentepe Coach Davut Kansu was forced to play midfielder Salih Karal in that position. The 18 year never let his Coach or team down putting in a good performance in that unaccustomed position.

The Coach also made an astute tactical switch playing lanky striker Semih Arslan in a withdrawn forward position, so that the two giant Lapta central defenders Necip and Ahmet Sezer had to mark Esentepe quick and much shorter forward Deniz Kibar and they both struggled against him.

Esentepe took an early lead in the 7th minute when a glorious ball from Kaan sent Deniz through closely marked by Necip with Goalkeeper Okyanus advancing, Deniz first shot was blocked by Necip but the ball fell kindly again to DENİZ KIBAR who made no mistake. 0-1.

Deniz speed and control was causing the slow turning lanky defenders all sorts of problems he was through again this time shooting across the goal from an Emre pass.

The second Esentepe goal came in the 24th minute when following a Salih corner from the right, Semih at the far post headed the ball down to teenage defender DEVRAN GÜNEŞ to slot home. 0-2.

To make matters worse for Lapta Goalkeeper Okyanus, who had been injured previously was unable to continue and was substituted with replacement goalie Ersenal after 30 minutes.

Lapta looked in disarray, were struggling to get their game going, rarely troubling the Esentepe goalkeeper Onur and were restricted to long range shots that went either wide or high over the bar.

The nearest they game was in the 41st minute when following a free kick from the right by Mustafa, defender Ahmet Sezer headed straight into the arms of Onur.

The first half ended in dramatic fashion in the 45th minute when a great through ball from Ege Can sent Deniz away on a one on one with goalkeeper Ersenal, as the Esentepe forward tried to round him he was brought down by the substitute goalkeeper. Referee Ali Özer had no hesitation in awarding a penalty and red carding the unfortunate Eresnal who had only been on the field for 15 minutes. Outfield player İsmail Çakır was summons from the bench and donned the goalkeeper's jersey. The drama continued when the double substitution goalkeeper saved Deniz poorly struck penalty with his feet to give Lapta some hope as they went into the break HALF TIME: 0-2.

EMRE (second right) who scored and EMEK (3rd right) who made

There were more Goalkeeper problems before the second half started this time Esentepe changed their keeper with Onur suffering from a knee injury, with the Tuğrul coming on for him.

Like most teams playing against 10 men Esentepe couldn't take advantage of their number superiority as they struggled to put any pressure on Lapta's make shift Goalkeeper Ismail.

Lapta took off one of their giant defenders Sezer and replaced him with another giant but this time a forward Barış Baro in the 60th minute.

Lapta's leading goal scorer Enes Kubat was trying but having a frustrating time, unable to find the target.

Esentepe third goal and what a goal it was came in the 73rd minute worth the admission price alone, a free kick on the left taken by Emek to the far post was met first time on the volley by EMRE MUTLU, which gave Ismail no chance – even a regular goalkeeper would have been beaten by this superb effort. 0-3.

Lapta made a spirited effort in the last 10 minutes to open their account but replacement goalkeeper Tuğrul, who has retired many times, but never lets his team down when called upon made a couple of good saves to keep a clean sheet. FULL TIME: 0-3

SUMMING UP: Full marks to Esentepe Coach Davut Kansu who got his tactics spot on. Lapta who have won 3 and lost 2 of their matches this season, are inconsistent and this match they were poor.

Şenol Captain and defender had a fine match, supported by Devran, in midfield "unsung hero" TuĞra worked his socks off, challenging, chasing, harrying. I thought midfielder EMRE MUTLU who capped another all action display with a superb goal was Esentepe "Man of the Match".
