We can not prevent accidents, but we can resolve the problems.

Personal Accident Insurance

Personal Accident Insurance policies covers the following risks:

- Death
- Permanent Disablement
- Medical Treatment

Policy insures the insured against the results of any accidents, which may be incurred during the validity of the insurance coverage. The term "accident" means a sudden and external incident resulting in injury or death of the insured, which is beyond his own will.

The following events are considered to be accidents:

- the inhalation of gases which arise suddenly and unexpectedly,
- burns, strain, sprain or tearing of muscles and nerves as a result of a sudden movement,
- toxication caused by snake or insect bites or
- contracting rabies, as the result of a bite.
